

Water Music Festival presents

The Poulshock Concert series:

“A Love Affair with Music”

Celebrating Water Music Festival’s 25th year anniversary with local and regional talent.

Prelude

Rose City Mixed Quartet

October 17, 2009, 2 pm – Oysterville Church

As part of Water Music Festival’s October slate, this Saturday afternoon concert will feature Barbara Poulshock’s compositions, including the debut of her settings to three William Blake poems. $15.

Overture

Poulshock Youth Ensemble

January 17, 2010, 3 pm – Inn at Harbour Village, Ilwaco

Featuring young students of Barbara Poulshock and performing her compositions, as well as other pieces written for solo, duet, and choral arrangement. Free.

Grand finale

“I’ll Tell You How the Sun Rose”

February 14, 2010, 4 pm – Hilltop Auditorium, Ilwaco

A full evening of music in a variety of forms, including the world premiere of Normand’s orchestration for Barbara’s settings of four Emily Dickinson poems. To coincide with Valentine’s Day/Presidents’ Day weekend. Ticket prices TBA.

Mission

In the spirit of Barbara and Normand Poulshock’s personal “love affair with music” – a romance that has touched so many people through their teaching and cultural contributions over their long careers – the Poulshock series honors their musical legacy, promotes the wealth and depth of musical talent in the region, and fosters a broader appreciation of original music.